

Christmas 2023

Dear Friends and Family,

What a year! Sarah (23) joined a competitive ghost hunting team and claims she captured a ghost on camera. The jury's still out, but our house is now a local haunted hotspot. Alex (17) constructed a zipline from his bedroom to the mailbox, which resulted in 14 broken garden gnomes and one very angry mailman.

John became a professional kite flyer after accidentally winning a contest at the county fair. I accidentally drove a Zamboni through a shopping mall during an ice rink delivery gone wrong. It's a long story.

Wishing you a ghost-free, Zamboni-free Christmas!
